DUTIES AND COMPENSATION OF ENUMERATORS

United States Census Director Durand Issues Important Statement Concerning Work.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 11.—The United States Census Director Durand has issued a statement defining the duties, compensation and conditions of census enumerators. He states that one of the duties imposed upon the supervisors by the census act is the designation of suitable persons to be employed, with the consent of the local authorities, as enumerators in their respective districts. It is further provided that such persons be selected solely with a view to fitness, and without reference to their political party affiliations. The census act provides that the enumeration of population and agriculture shall begin on April 15, 1910, and that each enumerator shall complete the work required in his district within thirty days in the case of rural districts and small towns, and within two weeks in the case of any incorporated city, town, village, or borough which had 8,000 inhabitants or more under the census of 1900. It is desirable where possible that the enumerator shall live in the district he is to canvass. He should be familiar with its territory and the general character of its people. The census requires as enumerators active, energetic persons of good character. They must be thoroughly trustworthy, honest, and of good habits. They must have at least an ordinary education and be able to write easily and with reasonable rapidity. General preference will be given to former enumerators if they are at present physically able to perform the duties of the position. Each person seeking appointment as a census enumerator must make an application to the supervisor of the district of which a resident, and said application must be made throughout in the handwriting of the applicant, and must be indorsed by a representative business man of the community in which the applicant resides. All applicants for appointment as enumerators will be required to take an examination, to be prescribed by the Director of the Census, to determine their fitness for the work. The examination will be of a practical character, consisting chiefly of the filling out of a blank schedule of population from data furnished, and, in the case of enumerators whose work will be in rural districts, the filling out of a sample schedule of agriculture. Each applicant is furnished with an illustrative example of the manner of filling the population schedule in country districts, with a copy of the agricultural schedule to which, in the main, the work of the census enumerators is confined. These forms of schedules are furnished for the information of the applicant and should be studied and preserved for use in connection with the examination referred to in the preceding paragraph.

"It will be necessary for each enumerator, before entering upon his duties, to receive a commission, under the hand of the supervisor of the district to which he belongs, and to take and subscribe an oath of affirmation that he will faithfully discharge all the duties required of him under the law.

"The census act also provides that an enumerator, after accepting an appointment and qualifying for the work, cannot, 'without justifiable cause,' refuse or neglect to perform the duties of the position; and he will further be required to devote his entire working time to the census work during the period of the enumeration.

"The compensation to be paid to enumerators is fixed by the census act, and an allowance of not less than two or more than four cents for each inhabitant, not less than twenty nor more than thirty cents for each farm reported, and ten cents for each barn and inclosure containing live stock not on farms, is provided for all subdivisions where the Director of the Census shall deem such remuneration sufficient. In other subdivisions the Director may fix a mixed rate of not less than one nor more than two dollars per day and, in addition, an allowance of not less than one nor more than three cents for each inhabitant enumerated, and not less than fifteen nor more than twenty cents for each farm reported, while in subdivisions where per diem rates are necessary, because of the difficulty of the enumeration, the enumerator may be allowed, in the discretion of the Director, a compensation of not less than three nor more than six dollars per day of eight hours actual field-work each. Except in extreme cases, no claim for mileage or traveling expenses will be allowed to any enumerator, and then only when authority has been previously granted by the Director of the Census."

Attention is also called to the letter of the President, addressed to the Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a copy of which is appended to the statement, concerning the matter of political activity on the part of census supervisors and enumerators. In accordance with this letter any enumerator must sever his connection with any political committee of which he may be a member, before entering on his duties, and must refrain from political activity during his term of employment.

The Darkey and the Cane Juice.

A rather amusing incident occurred on West Main street Saturday afternoon, which proved especially funny to those who witnessed it, and who did not understand the nature and disposition of the average darkey—especially the "old-timer."

"Run, nigger, run; put down that cane juice!" commanded one fellow who appeared to be a little overjoyed with something more like the "skimmings" than juice. "If you don't put down that cane juice and run, there'll be something doing."

This remark was addressed to an elderly colored man, in a red woolen shirt, who was walking down the center of the street with a two-gallon jar of cane juice balanced on his head.

Instead of running, the old man turned about, faced the man who had given him the command, and said: "What you talk'n 'bout tellin' dis niggah to run and put down dis cane juice? Sho, man, you musn't kno' er niggah. You might git me ter run, but when I does run I'm gwine to take dis cane juice wid me—an' yer may feel sure ob dat."

With this the old man proceeded on his way, but in the meantime the jar had been transferred to a secure position under his arm, which was evidence that he intended to carry out his promise to "take the juice with him" if he was compelled to run at all.

But the darkey didn't have to run, after all.

An Enterprising Firm.

Jones Bros. & Co., the furniture people, have an advertisement in this issue to which the attention of our readers is invited. This firm, though established only about one year, is one of the largest and most reliable in this section of the country, and is handling an excellent line of goods. Those looking for presents, as well as furniture for their own homes, could not do better than consult them.

Will Visit Old Home.

J. A. Goodwin, the clever and obliging ticket agent of the Atlantic Coast Line, expects to leave today for Greensboro, Ga., his old home, where he will spend a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Goodwin. While absent he will have the pleasure of attending the fiftieth anniversary, or golden wedding of his dear parents, which is an unusual event these days.

THREE WOMEN MURDERED IN HEART OF SAVANNAH

Believed That Negro Was Perpetrator of Awful Deed—Reward Offered for Fiend.

SAVANNAH, Dec. 11.—Victims of a revolting crime, Mrs. Eliza Gribble, aged 70 years, and her daughter, Mrs. Carrie Ohlander, were found dead in their home, No. 401 Perry street, west, here yesterday, while a third woman whose name is unknown, found just inside the front door of the house, is at the Savannah Hospital dying.

Physicians state that Mrs. Ohlander was the victim of a criminal assault just before she was killed.

One hundred and fifty negro men, caught in meshes of the police drag net through Yamacraw, the negro section of the city, are prisoners in police stations, the theory of the police being that a negro man, having planned an assault upon Mrs. Ohlander, was compelled to commit the other crimes in order to escape.

Other arrests will be made until every negro in the city who in any way resembles the description of a negro who during the last three days has been seen frequently about the premises of the house of the murders is a prisoner.

The police believe that this negro, using an axe taken from the woodshed in the rear of the Gribble home, beat Mrs. Gribble to death, struck down the unknown woman, and after assaulting Mrs. Ohlander in the wide, long hallway, where the bodies were found, finished his terrible work by beating in her skull with the weapon.

Killed While Reading.

Mrs. Gribble evidently was attacked from behind as she sat in an easy chair reading. On the floor beside her body were found the newspapers she was reading and her spectacles. One or possibly two blows were dealt her. Her grey hair, blood-matted, shows the impact of the blunt axe.

It is probable that the unknown woman was the first to be struck down; that she met the murderer at the door as he entered and was struck before she could escape.

Then the murderer, stealthily approaching aged Mrs. Gribble, killed her. It is believed that Mrs. Ohlander was attacked as she left her room to enter the hallway, was assaulted and killed. The unknown woman's skull was crushed in and her death is a matter of but a few hours.

Other theories are entertained by searchers for the murderer but the police are proceeding on the theory that a negro man is guilty. Many entertain this theory and feeling is intense here because of it. The motley horde of prisoners are quiet and frightened in the police station and jail. It is believed that if the negro suspected of the crime is caught he can be quickly identified.

Bloodhounds have been at work in an effort to take the trail from the woodshed where the axe was found by the murderer, but as the house of murders is almost within the heart of the city and as the murders were probably committed several hours before the discovery of the bodies, the dogs will be of little use.

Mayor Tiedeman of Savannah has offered a reward of $1,000 for the capture with evidence to convict of the slayer of Mrs. Gribble and Mrs. Ohlander and assailant of Mrs. Maggie Hunter, who was not identified for hours after the discovery of the murders and who is the woman at the point of death in Savannah Hospital.

It is now almost certainly known that a negro, the negro who was at first suspected, is the guilty man. Persons have been found who state that this negro was seen entering the Gribble house with the fatal axe in his hand, and was seen closing the shutters to the windows of the house, and to leave the premises, all at the hour when it is believed the murders were committed.

This negro's description has been printed on hand bills and scattered broadcast over the city and country with the reward offer, and all nearby towns have been notified and are on the lookout. Police officers in automobiles have covered all the roads for miles surrounding the city while posers on foot have scoured the places where automobiles could not go. The house to house search of negro homes continues. It seems hardly possible the negro can long remain at large.

SEA ISLAND COTTON.

Sales at Savannah During Past Week Reached 3,303 Bales.

SAVANNAH, Ga., Dec. 11.—The Sea Island market continued easy early, but the lower basis brought larger orders and considerable business resulted, which relieved the market. Latterly the tone was firmer, and prices recovered slightly, the market closing steady.

Holders were encouraged by the advance in Egyptian cotton consequent to the shortage in that crop, but were badly handicapped by the weakness of interior sellers, who seem to have sold much below the Savannah prices.

Sales for the week 3,303 bales.

The following prices were based on factors' quotations and are revised weekly on Fridays:

A Handsome Home.

Architect Shields Warren has completed the plans for the new Baird home on East Main street N., which will be one of the handsomest homes in the city.

This home will be two stories in height, and will contain twelve rooms, with bath, lavatories and toilets extra. It will be in the colonial style, with large columns in front, with French bevel plate glass windows and doors and fine quarter-oak floors, and a stone foundation.

S. H. Dempsey will have the contract on this home, and when completed it will be one of the handsomest residences in the country.

Saturday's Fire.

An alarm of fire was turned in from Box 81 at 1:50 o'clock Saturday afternoon, which called the department promptly to a house occupied by colored people in the vicinity of the electric light plant on South University street.

Upon arrival of the department the hose was quickly connected, but no fire could be discovered. It was learned ultimately that the trouble came from the igniting of a newspaper lying on the inside of the house, and the blaze was extinguished quickly.

There was no damage, and everybody was happy.

Sale a Success.

University Place seems to be a center with out-of-town people, for every street is kept lively with Hampton-Watson and their carriages, showing the attractive sub-division, and they report that everybody that comes in with them are buyers. F. M. Smith of Hampton Springs was seen with them last week and its a ten-to-one shot that he now owns some University Place dirt. Mr. Watson is highly gratified with the first week's business and predicts for next week even better results, for with strangers and local people vying with each other for good locations for home lots, the future of University Place is assured.

This Was Some Shooting.

Talk about success at shooting, but a friend of John Holly of Arredondo brought to Gainesville Saturday the news of a remarkable effect from the contents of one barrel of a gun.

This gentleman stated that Mr. Holly and a friend went out on the marsh two or three days ago duck hunting. It was not long before they were down to business, and had killed quite a number.

But this companion of Mr. Holly proved an exceptional marksman. When a large drove of ducks were "flushed" and started to fly away he discharged the contents of one barrel, with the result that five duck turned their toes to the daisies.

The marshes are thickly inhabited by ducks now, and sportsmen generally are having fine success.

DON'T EXPERIMENT

You Will Make No Mistake If You Follow This Advice.

Never neglect your kidneys.

If you have pain in the back, urinary disorders, dizziness and nervousness, it's time to act and no time to experiment. These are all symptoms of kidney trouble, and you should seek a remedy which is known to cure the kidneys.

Doan's Kidney Pills is the remedy to use. No need to experiment. It has cured many stubborn cases in this vicinity.

Can Gainesville residents demand further proof than that contained in the following testimonial?

Oscar Osterman, of Starke, Fla., says: "I give Doan's Kidney Pills my highest recommendation as they proved of more benefit to me than any other remedy I had previously used. I suffered from kidney trouble for some time. The kidney secretions were too frequent in passage and I was forced to arise from six to eight times during the night. I also had backache and was bothered by a pain through my loins. I finally procured Doan's Kidney Pills and they soon helped me. By the time I had taken the contents of two boxes, the backaches and pains entirely disappeared and the passages of the kidney secretions soon became regular. I now feel fifty per cent better than before in a long time."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McBarn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

THREE MILLIONS OF MATCHES ARE STRUCK EACH MINUTE.

By the end of the brief minute taken to read these paragraphs the nations of the civilized world will have struck three million matches. This is the average for every minute of the twenty-four of the day. Seven billion is the enormous number for the entire year, and those living under the American flag are said to be responsible for the consumption of one-half of this amount.

The importance of the industry which turns out the little splinters of wood tipped with sulphur or some other material ignited by friction is only recognized when the average smoker tries to contemplate his predicament if he had to go back to the time when he had to coax a spark from a tinder box. Of course, the answer is, he would smoke a great deal less because of the difficulty in getting a light, or else, on the other hand, smoke continuously in order to keep alive the fire at the end of his stogie or Havana, pipe or cigarette, as the case might be.

Small and insignificant as it is, the match demands perhaps as much attention in the choice of the wood going into its manufacture as any other forest product. Only the choicest portions of the best trees are suitable. Sapwood, knotty or cross-grained timber, will not do. Instead of being a by-product of other articles of manufacture the little match is turned out at hundreds of mills over the country where the by-products are bulky objects like doors, sash, shingles, siding, posts, and cord-wood. The pines, linden, aspen, white cedar, poplar, birch, and willow are the most suitable match timbers.

The match makers—not the matrimonial kind—are already finding that the amount of choice timber available is dwindling. Forest conservation, if applied to the holdings of the match companies, like it is on Uncle Sam's National Forests in the West, will do much to make the supply sufficient for a longer number of years than would be the case if the old-time wasteful lumbering methods of a few years ago should continue. The rapid increase in stumpage is one of the chief factors in encouraging the wise use of the forests where suitable match timber is available.

Editor Russell of The Brooksville Southern Argus thus sings the praise of his State and county: "Florida is the finest State in the Union. Just to think the 9th day of December and you can have your table loaded down with all kinds of vegetables such as cabbage, Irish potatoes, sweet pepper, cucumbers, egg plants, turnips, lettuce, and now in a short while will be eating English peas fresh from the garden and also strawberries will soon be in abundance. Florida is the best State and Hernando the best county to live in."

A big crack had been steadily growing in California for several months back, and it is now expected to show itself in other parts of the country, including this city. It is to be found in the crop of 25,000,000 pounds of English walnuts.

THE DEATH OF CHIVALRY.

Mrs. Newell Dwight Hillis, wife of the pastor of Plymouth church, Brooklyn, has a gift for naming things, and names some of them with such descriptive insight that she has enraged the suffragettes. Mrs. Hillis declares that American women (as a nation) abuse their husbands, that they no longer deserve the good old Scriptural title of helpmeet; that they are "sybarites in silk" sitting at home in idleness and luxury while their husbands are struggling in the mart and the market place to pay for the easy chair and the silk gowns. According to Mrs. Hillis the American "sybarites" are a "nation of widows," as so many men succumb to the strain of modern business life and die comparatively young.

Mrs. Hillis furthermore declares that when there were "no sewing machines, no ready-made clothing, no prepared breakfast foods, gas stoves, caterers and bakers," women had to stay at home and work; nowadays, she implies, a certain personage, not to be mentioned in polite society, finds employment for idle hands to do, and the suffragettes seem to take it that Mrs. Hillis means throwing stones and carrying street banners, demanding in her letters "the ballot." One sad result of this rushing into any and every kind of publicity is, she declares, the death of American chivalry.

And in this Mrs. Hillis touches a truth, says The Asheville (N. C.) Gazette-News. Go into certain large cities today and you will find chivalry—deference to women—dead, and be too late for the funeral. Men do not stand in crowded cars that women may sit; they push and hustle them in the depots and at the steamer landing, but, with all respect to the Brooklyn lady, this state of affairs is not due to the "sybarites in silk," but to the working girls in trim business suits, who are earning their living and taking the consequences "like a man." It is competition in the business world and on the field of athletics that wherever it exists is killing the spirit of chivalry. A girl who is sharp enough to drive a bargain, cool-headed enough to travel from Maine to San Francisco, independent enough to go to the theater unattended and strong enough to be an opponent to reckon with at basket ball, golf or tennis, isn't exactly an object of reverential deference.

The times are changing, and we are losing some of the sweet and beautiful things of life; whether it is the fault of mankind or womankind is a problem for skilled sociologists. Women are the competitors of men in every field of employment; it is because of the inefficiency of men to provide for the family or because of the extravagant demands of the women and children in the modern home, or is it both? And isn't the fact that Mrs. Hillis deploras, that there are now so few real homes, so much apartment living, with "caterers, bakers, telephones, gas stoves, etc.," more the result than the cause of the invasion of women into the wage earners' territory? That there are more widows than widowers—if it is true—would seem to indicate that women can stand the strain better than men. It is certain that there are more old maids and bachelors under the new regime. And this is not due to the decay of romance and chivalry but is because a man hesitates to ask a girl to share with him an income not much larger than the one she is earning and spending; and because a girl hesitates to give up the liberty of earning and spending for the sake of a husband—a home she can have anyhow in these days, and be a care-free, independent bachelor maid. Whither are we tending? What will be the result? Not Mrs. Hillis nor the suffragettes, nor the "sybarites" nor the strugglers, but time alone can tell.

The Sun's Christmas edition will be issued next Thursday, and will go into practically every home in Alachua county. If you have not done so, see about advertising space tomorrow.

JUDSON, Dec. 11.—Mr. James A. Overstreet of Bronson died with consumption on the 8th. He was brought here to his family cemetery, near Judson, and buried.

Tuesday night, the 7th, there was organized here a lodge of Woodmen of the World. Twelve members went into the organization.

On Tuesday, the 7th, Mrs. E. Davis was on the road from her house to Trenton and there came up a storm and a pine tree fell on the front wheels of her buggy, demolishing the wheels without hurting her or the horse but very little. It fell between the lady and her horse.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

THEY INJURE CHILDREN

Ordinary Cathartics and Pills and Harsh Physic Causes Distressing Complaints.

You cannot be over-careful in the selection of medicine for children. Only the very gentlest bowel medicine should ever be given, except in emergency cases. Ordinary pills, cathartics and purgatives are apt to do more harm than good. They cause griping, nausea and other distressing after-effects that are frequently health-destroying and a life-lasting annoyance.

We personally recommend and guarantee Rexall Orderlies as the safest and most dependable remedy for constipation and associate bowel disorders. We have such absolute faith in the virtues of this remedy that we sell it on our guarantee of money back in every instance where it fails to give entire satisfaction, and we urge all in need of such medicine to try it at our risk.

Rexall Orderlies contain an entirely new ingredient which is odorless, tasteless and colorless. As an active agent, it embraces the valuable qualities of the best known intestinal regulator tonics.

Rexall Orderlies are eaten like candy. They are particularly prompt and agreeable in action, may be taken at any time, day or night; do not cause diarrhoea, nausea, griping, excessive looseness or other undesirable effects. They have a very natural action upon the glands and organs with which they come in contact, act as a positive and regulative tonic upon the relaxed muscular coat of the bowel and its dry mucous lining; remove irritation, overcome weakness, tone and strengthen the nerves and muscles, and restore the bowels and associate organs to more vigorous and healthy activity.

Rexall Orderlies completely relieve constipation, except when of a surgical character. They also tend to overcome the necessity of constantly taking laxatives to keep the bowels in normal condition.

There is really no medicine for this purpose so good as Rexall Orderlies, especially for children, aged and delicate persons. They are prepared in tablet form, in two sizes of packages: 12 tablets 10 cents, and 36 tablets 25 cents. Remember you can obtain Rexall Remedies in Gainesville only at our store—The Rexall Store. J. W. McCollum & Co., corner East Main and Union streets.

The Correct Time

To stop a cough or cold is just as soon as it starts—then there will be no danger of pneumonia or consumption. Just a few doses of Ballard's Horehound Syrup taken at the start will stop the cough. If it has been running on for sometime the treatment will be longer, but the cure is sure. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

GOT HIS HAIR BACK.

Was Perfectly Bald When He Started to Use Newbro's Herpicide.

Frederick Manuell, Maryland block, Butte, Montana, bought a bottle of Newbro's Herpicide, April 6, '09, and began to use it for entire baldness. The hair follicles in his scalp were not dead and in 20 days he had hair all over his head. On July 2 he writes, "and today my hair is as thick and luxuriant as any one could wish." Newbro's Herpicide works on an old principle and with a new discovery—destroys the cause and you remove the effect. Herpicide destroys the germ that causes dandruff, falling hair, and finally baldness, so that with the cause gone the effect cannot remain. Stops falling hair at once and a new growth starts. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.
